OWEGO -- Becca Horton's ace sealed Owego's gold-bracket victory Monday in its own volleyball tournament, the Owego Columbus Day Clash.

Owego, the tournament's defending champion, defeated Windsor 25-22 in the finals.

Owego held a 15-10 lead in the finals before falling behind, 22-21. Owego took the next four points, three with Horton serving.

Owego's Breanna Horton had seven assists, two aces, one kill and one block in the finals. She led the Indians with 65 assists in the tournament. Kelly Lavender had 39 kills.

Nine teams participated in the one-day event. Teams played two rounds of pool play, with four one-game matches in each round.

Teams were seeded after the first round of pool play and again after the second round. The top six teams from the second round of pool play participated in the gold bracket playoffs-- Windsor was second-seeded to Cornwall, and Owego was fourth. The remaining three teams played in the silver bracket.

Johnson City defeated Candor, 25-21, in the silver bracket finals.
